

Invitation to the European Road Safety Charter signing ceremony for FIA members

The European Commission and FIA (Fédération Internationale de l'Automobile) are honoured to invite the European automobile clubs to join the European Road Safety Charter at a signing ceremony which will take place in Copenhagen, on June the 4th, 2009.

The continued involvement of automobile clubs all over Europe in road safety issues assures a constant implementation of innovative strategies within this area. Being a signatory of the European Road Safety Charter shows a commitment to a safer traffic environment.

Taking into consideration the constant effort necessary to achieve the European Commission's target goal to halve the number of road fatalities until 2010, FIA invite all its members to take specific actions to improve road safety by contributing to this initiative.

The European Road Safety Charter signing event will take place during the FIA Eurocouncil meeting on the 4th of June between 1 and 3 pm at the Marriot Hotel, 5, Kalvebod Brygge, Copenhagen.
